§ 96-1. Use regulations; prohibitions.

§ 96-1. Use regulations; prohibitions.

- A. No person shall be permitted in a Township park except between the hours of dawn to dusk, unless a permit has been issued by the Park and Recreation Board, or its designate for such permit issuance, as hereinafter provided in § 96-4.
[Amended 2-27-2006 by Ord. No. 1-2006]
- B. No person shall enter or leave a Township park except by entrances and/or exits provided for such purposes.
- C. No person shall enter or use a toilet in a Township park set apart for the use of the opposite sex.
- D. Possession, distribution or consumption of beer, ale, other alcoholic or intoxicating beverage or a controlled substance (such as are now defined or may later be defined by federal, state or Township law, act or ordinance) is strictly prohibited in any and all Township parks.
- E. No gambling or gambling device is permitted in any Township park.
- F. No abusive, threatening, indecent or profane language and/or conduct that is publicly inappropriate and/or annoying to others using Township park facilities shall be permitted.
- G. No person or persons shall be permitted to solicit money, or promise for the same, within the confines of a Township park.
- H. No horses, dogs or other animals owned or possessed by people shall be permitted within the confines of Township parks, except as permitted in the Okehocking Preserve and the Serpentine Preserve. Horses shall be permitted in the Okehocking and Serpentine Preserves in designated areas shown on the Okehocking Preserve and Serpentine Preserve recreation maps, if attended and under control at all times. Properly licensed dogs shall be permitted in the Okehocking and Serpentine Preserves if they are on a leash not exceeding six feet in length and if attended and under control at all times. Dogs shall be permitted in Okehocking Preserve off of leashes only in designated areas as approved by resolution of the Board of Supervisors from time to time and shown on the Okehocking Preserve recreation map, if attended and under control at all times. For the purpose of this subsection, the term "dogs" does not include guide dogs or other dogs which are assisting handicapped persons and are controlled by the use of a harness or other restraint. Owners or handlers of a dog shall be responsible for the prompt and complete removal of their excrement by immediate disposal of pet waste bags in a trash receptacle (if provided) or removal from the premises.

§ 96-2. Enforcement.

The Police Department shall enforce the regulations herein set forth and shall exercise general supervision over persons and property in any Township parks.

§ 96-3. Powers and duties of Park and Recreation Board. [Amended 6-17-2013 by Ord. No. 4-2013; editor's note: see Chapter 31 for Powers and duties of Park and Recreation Board; Amended 2-27-2006 by Ord. No. 1-2006]

§ 96-4. Permits. [Amended 2-27-2006 by Ord. No. 1-2006]

Permits for use of Township park(s) and field(s) shall be issued in behalf of the Township by the Township's Park and Recreation Board and/or designated Township park and recreation staff. The Township, upon recommendation from its Park and Recreation Board, may enact a fee schedule for such permits. All moneys received from these fees will be entered into the Township's Park and Recreation Fund and be designated for Township park maintenance and improvements, appropriate Township-sponsored recreation programs held within the confines of its parks or at other sites and facilities approved by the Township.

§ 96-5. Violations and penalties.

Pursuant to Section 1901(c.1)(2) of the Second Class Township Code, any person who violates this chapter, and/or any regulation established herein, shall, by action brought before a District Magistrate Judge in the same manner provided for the enforcement of summary offenses under the Pennsylvania Rules of Criminal Procedure, upon judgment of conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding $1,000 per violation, together with the costs of prosecution; and further subject to imprisonment to the extent allowed by law for the punishment of summary offenses. Each day a violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.

Parents and/or legal guardians of person(s) less than 18 years of age will be held liable for any/all fines assessed and/or damages incurred by those persons to Township park properties.

Further, the appropriate officers or agents of the Township are hereby authorized to seek any other available relief at law or equity, including injunction, to enforce compliance with this chapter.

§ 96-6. Existing rights and remedies preserved; severability.

It is hereby declared to be the purpose of this chapter to provide additional and cumulative remedies to regulate the public use, enjoyment, health, welfare and safety of Township parks and recreation areas, and nothing contained in this chapter shall in any way abridge or alter rights of action or remedies now or hereafter existing in equity, or under common law or statutory law, civil or criminal. All other sections, parts and provisions of said Code of Ordinances of the Township of Willistown shall remain unchanged.
