

Stop this invader!

The Spotted Lanternfly is a threat to businesses,
agriculture,
tourism, parks—
and *your back yard!

Willistown Township
688 Sugartown Road
Malvern, PA 19355
willistown.pa.us

Dear Willistown Area Residents, Landscapers, Tree Companies, Property Managers, and Municipal Employees,

You are cordially invited to attend this important meeting.

Hope to see you there,

Willistown Parks & Recreation

Spotted Lanternfly Alert: Your Action Required!

PUBLIC MEETING

Homeowners
Landscapers & Tree Services
Property Managers
Municipal Employees

Thursday, November 29 • 7 PM

Presented by Michael E. Panuschka, Forester Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture
Bureau of Plant Industry, Entomology Division

Hosted by: Willistown Township Parks & Recreation
Questions: Contact Mary Hundt at 610-647-5300 x224
Location: General Wayne Elementary School Auditorium
More Info: extension.psu.edu/spotted-lanternfly

IT'S HERE!

Learn about the Spotted Lanternfly and how to manage it and its favored host tree, the Tree of Heaven.

Each season calls for a different action to manage and help eradicate this damaging pest—November and December are critical months!